"One day you will understand." Those were the last words Rayne's mother spoke to her before she walked out and didn't look back. Now, years later, Rayne is living a normal as a life as she can. Going to school, hanging out with friends and going to parties. What starts off as a blurry car ride home one reckless night and a few silent phone calls turns into the past ending up on her door step. Keeping Broken Promises explores the addictions of drugs and love. Both are dangerous, exciting, and heartbreaking. When intertwined together you have to sometimes travel down a path and go to the edge of temptation to see that what you lost may be better off gone.
