“Islam Elevates Women.” This is the rhetoric taught to Muslims, and being repeated by them ever since the events of 9/11 have catapulted their religion into the spotlight. Most claim that the unjust treatment of women in predominately Muslim nations is a purely cultural practice, and that the Koran actually bestows upon women more rights than allotted to them in any other religion or society. This book shows the actual verses from the Koran itself, the justifications for such verses, and the prevalent acceptance and defense of a sexist, patriarchal ideology which has served to oppress women for centuries. Virgins and veils, male dominance and female dependence, male lust fulfilled in life and death, female sexuality suffocated and abused. Men submit to Allah, women submit to Allah and their husbands. This is Islam: where subjugation is called elevation and the rationalization is as pervasive as the denial.
