Bridging: Discovering the Beauty of Bridges

Bridging: Discovering the Beauty of Bridges

A remarkable gallery of lavish photographs which elevate bridges from pieces of the roadway to pieces of art. The 283 colorful pictures cover 20 centuries and 16 countries across North America and Europe, concentrating on structures with striking aesthetic features. The succinct but somehow satisfying captions reveal that Cortright has made an extensive study of his favorite photographic subjects. This splendid book, a testament to one man's fascination, invites the reader's wonder at the utility and grace, strength and imagination, the art and science of bridges.
