On the Mission in Missouri: 1857-1868 (Classic Reprint) John Joseph Hogan

June, 1857, the Most Reverend Peter Richard Kenrick, Archbishop of St. Louis yielding to nay repeated request to be relieved from city parochial duty, accepted my resignation of St. Michael parish in St. Louis, and appointed thereto the Very Reverend Patrick A. Feehan, late president of the Theological Seminary at Carondelet and at present Archbishop of Chicago. This gave me what I was looking for an opportunity to go into the interior of North Missouri where there was no priest, and there build a chapel or two as nucleuses of congregations. My purpose proposed to His Grace the Archbishop of St. Louis, received his sanction so far as that I was at liberty to go into the country and see it first. OUTWARD BOUND. I turned my face towards North Missouri.
