A Warrior's Inheritance (Volume 3) Mr Sebastian Swan, Mr David Mattches

“A Warriors’ Inheritance”, the sequel to “Dream World”. Once again, international author Sebastian Swan draws from the history of his home in Northumbria for his latest thrilling historical novel. It is the story of two cousins, one a priest “Father William”, one a knight “Earl Thomas Matthewson” and their sisters, Isabella, Charlotte, and Beatrix. The story is set in the years from 1100 to 1140 AD, during the turbulent uncertainty of the succession to Henry I, and the subsequent civil war between the forces of King Stephen and the Empress Matilda. In the midst of the ensuing turmoil, the family are threatened with destruction, by treachery and murder. Earl Thomas is constantly hampered by the nations problems, and needs his cousin William to help solve the mysterious attacks upon their family. Underlying the mystery is a turbulent love story. The tale is woven firmly into the period of history, which is known as “The Anarchy”. Live history with the Matthewson family.
