Life Without Rejection Dr Chris Miller

The power of rejection is indeed a power, a spiritual bondage preventing a person from fully grasping his or her freedom in Christ. In writing this tool for ministry, Christine Miller-Serviss used her experience with rejection, primarily through struggling with her late husband's, and her own, alcohol addiction, as well as other addictions. Her new autobiography/ministry tool, Life Without Rejection, journeys into the personal wilderness of rejection, as the author encourages readers on their search for true self and to realize the authority of God can break the chains of spiritual bondage. Christine discusses her history with alcohol, addiction, and abuse along with her husband, which was fueled by rejection and depression. As she found God in their trials, they began to find the light in the darkness and work towards forgiveness for themselves and others. Christine also offers advice for those developing their own deliverance ministries, prompting all to see Jesus is the only power over rejection.
