Amish Christmas Love Lessons (Amish Romance) (A Harmony Creek Amish Romance) Ruth Bawell
As the only teacher in her small Amish town of New Hope, Abigail Miller has her hands full getting the children ready for the Christmas play. So when Jonah Fisher, Abigail's secret crush, stops by with a delivery of wood, she is both excited and anxious. He must be interested in her, too, to have gone out of his way like that. But when Jonah chooses to sit with Emma, Abigail's cousin and closest friend, at the next Singing, Abigail is both angry and hurt. She tries to keep her mind off of Emma and Jonah, turning to her faith in Gott and focusing on her young students. And when a snowstorm traps her and her students inside the school, Abigail realizes that love finds its own way to us, if we let it.
