From the early 1980s to the early 2000s, a notorious police force known as the INPC covertly carries out its mission in a North American city. As the unit quietly recruits and then sends John Dominic to battle crime, the street-smart cop slowly becomes a legend.

After years of secrecy, a rogue reporter finally tracks down Dominic and meets him in a grimy pub tucked away in a strip mall. As Dominic begins revealing stories of his wild adventures and interactions with hot babes, gang members, bikers, and a variety of unsavory characters, the reporter is led down an unforgettable path into the mysterious ninja brotherhood of the Shadow Cops where arrests are made amid a broken and inefficient justice system, where gangs rule the streets, and where the INPC move beyond the law to pluck undesirables from society. But just when the reporter thinks he has captured the entire story, his own destiny changes with one phone call.

In this erotic thriller, an unconventional journalist snags the story of his life when he has the chance to interview a seasoned member of a mysterious police force with a secret mission.
