The BASEBALL Alphabet Book Stephanie S. Ellis

This is the second in a series of picture books describing sports for children. Using the 26 Alphabet letters and combining them with authentic baseball pictures, the author has creatively introduced children to the sport of baseball in an inviting manner. Each letter describes several baseball terms that players will learn as they progress within the game. There are over fifty pictures, in four color. The rules of the game and a complete glossary are included in the book. For anyone interested in sports, this book is an educational tool to delight their soul.
