Modern reality is complex and multifaceted. Existence within the contemporary world is a patchwork of politics, entertainment, religious expression, philosophy, war, peace, consumption, labor and destruction. Within the space of each of these situations, each individual seeks the solace of understanding, comprehension and the totality of the self. Jacqueline Renee Moore's poetry expresses thoughts on everything from modern art, materialism and martyrdom to the philosophies of Friedrich Nietzsche and C. S. Lewis, taking readers on a search for meaning in the midst pain, death, faith and love.
