Getting Along With People @ Work Mary Whelchel

Surely Jesus didn't mean our neighbor in the next cubicle at work when said we must love our neighbors as ourselves, did he? How can we work happily with difficult people?

Our best intentions aren't enough to overcome the daily grating of personalities on the job. We don't want to give in to prevailing workplace cynicism, but we don't need just another sermon either—we need advice that works.

Mary Whelchel can help you identify your workplace relationship problems and can help you find God's peace on the job. Drawing from scriptural principles as well as contemporary experience, this book delivers what it promises—better relationships in your workplace. Apply some of Mary's valuable practical tips, and you might even become able to love that difficult boss of yours—or, if you are the boss, learn to love your irritating employees!
