Long before moving to Canada from India, a young Gursharn Zal was writing poetry in Punjabi, Urdu and Farsi, and garnering much interest as a poet to watch. However, as Zal is quick to point out, all poetry springs from the same source regardless of the language in which it is ultimately expressed. This is Zal's fifth collection in English. He currently resides in southwestern Ontario, where he finds daily inspiration and solace in nature and in the beauty of the surrounding countryside.
