Secrets of Gingerbread Men Valorie M. Taylor

Secrets of Gingerbread Men is a compilation of three novella's chronicling the lives of three, powerful, God-fearing, African American Males. Valorie M. Taylor takes you inside the lives of;

Steven J. Torrance a love-struck newlywed and narrator of "The Marriage Bed." After joining church, Steve and new wife, Camille are visited by a couple from the congregation who insist on praying with joined hands around the newlyweds' bed! Although Steve is not terribly religious, he begins to relate the words of the compelling prayer to his and Camille's life together.

In "Hand Me Downs," meet controversial and unapologetic Kendrick Walker. A twenty something gay male infected with the AIDS virus. A successful nightclub owner and art dealer, he finds his life spinning out of control after discovering the violent suicide of his roommate. On the advice of a friend, Kendrick sends scathing letters to his estranged brothers in an attempt to purge himself of the "demons" that have simultaneously haunted him about his lifestyle choices while repelling the remnant of his family.

"Gingerbread Men" introduces Garrett Hunter. A software consultant who has it all; chiseled body, good looks, sleek sports car, tons of money and a bevy of beautiful women vying for his attention. Garret settles for nothing but the best but with that comes a hefty price. Garrett unwittingly finds himself embroiled in the middle of a unsavory internet scandal that forces him to fight for the love of his life. After a pending murder investigation, complete with a bird-dogging detective, Garrett begins searching for the favor and protection of his God.
