The time has come. The war ends now ... Syrina's inner energy has not been the same since the Guardian Alanna saved her that day in the market. A burning need to help others drives her to seek permission to join the caravan headed to the Rebels camp. Lady Alanna and Prince Jerric have given Syrina and her mother so much, and in return, Syrina wants to spread that kindness to the Guardian's army in any way she can. It was supposed to be another easy plan. Until an amber-eyed stranger flipped her life around, throwing her into the strange world of Guardians and Warriors. Now, Syrina faces challenges she's never even dreamed of as the missing piece in the War on the Lands is found. New enemies and allies surface in this never ending war. Syrina and the Guardians lock onto the measure of goodness they've been given while evil threatens to rip it from their hands. When the battle hits home, nothing will be the same.
