The Last Kings (Volume 1) Nina Bang

A city full of lies and secrets Detroit plays widow to king pin after king pin. The leader of The Last Kings, Ray, decides to put a stop to that. His movement is impenetrable and he's counting on Team Mula to keep it that way. Placing his cousin Sadie head of one of his biggest underground operations he knew things would run smoothly and nothing would stop him from reaching higher than the top...right? When an unexpected turn of events causes a war to break out in a city that he believed to be in the palm of his hands the only thing to do is pull out all weapons. Growing up in a world of chaos and violence bloodshed, it was all he and Team Mula knew, regaining the city should have been as easy. But with his right hand man Tyler's sister missing, growing love connections, and deaths of those close to them everything is getting out of control and Ray has no leads on who is causing destruction to his city. He was always taught to aim first and shoot later...but how can you dead a ghost?
