The Quarry: When the Monster Lives at Home Sally Rice

The Quarry, by Sally Rice, is a riveting, true story of a single mother's desperate efforts to protect her children from a cunning child molester, who lived in her home and slept in her bed.

Interwoven in The Quarry's storyline is the further tragedy that Sally experiences as she is vilified by the legal system, labeled a "terrorist," arrested, and sentenced to jail, for seeking to protect her children.

The Quarry, despite its powerful subject matter, is both uplifting and empowering, as Sally's life unfolds before us and the courage and resilience that she shows are laid bare for all to see. (Sally Rice The Quarry)
