What would you do if you lost something valuable? Would you stop everything, do anything to retrieve what was lost? The Church is in danger of having the Shekinah Glory of God permanently depart; however, Bishop Clarke shows us how to regain what we are in danger of losing. God will show up wherever His people are and the atmosphere is right. Only then will we hear God say, "I have chosen to abide here," so that we will experience the manifest presence of God.
