Does God have a plan for the Jews in the end times? Has God rejected the Jews because of their rejection of Jesus as Messiah? Has the Christian Church replaced the Jews as the true Israel? What relationship between Christians and Jews does the Bible teach? What events will Israel experience in the Biblical end times and how do they affect the other nations of the world? These questions and more are addressed by the author in this his third book on the subject of Bible prophecy. The volume contains seven studies on the above subjects. While dealing with topics that are often unfamiliar to many, the author does so in an easy-to-understand manner. This material is vital to all persons whether Jew, Christian, other religions or non-religious persons. The events of the end times as taught by the Old and New Testaments will affect every person alive on the earth.
