Just as the "all powerful" Wizard of Oz was unmasked in the 1939 film classic, the men behind the curtain who are controlling the pharmaceutical industry are about to be exposed! Whether you know it or not, the pharmaceutical industry (lovingly referred to as Big Pharma) controls many facets of your life - making the world a "medicine cult." The frightening thing is that the "cabal" is deeply mired in politics, deception, scandal and corruption. Instead of having the health and welfare of its customers in mind, many of those in control are primarily focused on money. Yet, thanks to skillful marketing tactics, everything seems rosy and everyone depends on the latest drug to combat their health woes. The author, John Virapen, has been called THE Big Pharma Insider. During his 35 years in the pharmaceutical industry internationally (most notably as general manager of Eli Lilly and Company in Sweden), Virapen was responsible for the marketing of several drugs, all of them with side effects. He shocked the world with his first tell-all confessional, "Side Effects: Death - Confessions of a Big Pharma Insider." Now he is ready to take on the "powers that be" again with this explosive followup!
