Sharing Mountain Recipes: The Muffin Lady's Everyday Favorites Randi Lee Levin

Sharing Mountain Recipes is said to be a must have addition in all high altitude kitchens. Filled with tips, substitutions, metric conversions and a wide assortment of daily recipes that have been requested over and over again, makes this cookbook one that you will not want to be without! Imagine the ou's and ah's and the smiles on your loved ones faces when you present them with a bowl of hot Baked Oatmeal (enjoyed for over 100 years to date), a homemade fruit bar to take on the go, or a delicious Spinach Mushroom Quiche for breakfast one morning. How about replacing the everyday midday sandwich with a plateful of Shrimp Salad, Dad's Favorite Oriental Salad or easily prepared but divine, Ham Salad. Each can be prepared in a jiffy as can Mom's Shepard's Pie or Hasty Chicken Stew for dinner. Rhonda's Raspberry Balsamic Chicken only takes minutes to prepare, but will give your loved ones the impression that they are dining in a 5-star restaurant. The soups will fill your home with the scent of goodness and the snacks, such as Fruit Burritos, Molasses Bread or a simple Cream Cheese Coffeecake will be requested for years to come. Sharing Mountain Recipes is a treasure trove of recipes that have been requested for years. The memorable flavors and tips for easily preparing scrumptious everyday feasts, will have you returning to the pages time and again. No worries if you want to taste these fabulous recipes in lower altitudes, for this scrumptious cookbook includes tips for using the recipes in lower elevations too! If you enjoy good foods, good times and the production of smiles and requests for more, then whether at high or low altitudes, this is a cookbook for you and your loved ones to enjoy for generations!
