The Complete Idiot's Guide to Surviving Bankruptcy Carol Costa, James R. Beaman

This book will include everything readers need to know in order to determine whether bankruptcy is the only way out, if it is-how to decide between chapter 7 and chapter 13, how to go about filing, and how to restore their credit once they've filed. In addition the book will cover all questions most first-time filers would never think to ask, but need to know the answers to, such as: What debts are non-dischargeable? What assets are exempt from liquidation? What kinds of property can be legally transferred? What rights do you have in dealing with creditors?
