The Karate Coloring Book Tina Marie Johnson/Benson

This is an illustrated martial arts coloring book for children of all ages who love karate and love to color. The illustrations were designed to be fun to color as well as help beginning students visualize basic karate techniques and stances. The artwork was designed to appeal to many different styles. Although this is not intended as an instruction manual, each page contains a convenient space for instructors to add their own name for any basic techniques that fit in their style.
