An Adult Western Romance Adventure. Marie Trousdale's ideal life came crashing down ten years ago when a drunk driver killed her husband and 3-year old son. Since then she has focused on her career as a project manager but has become burned out with the stress and pressures of the job. Now the city wants to take her California home and property. Wil Townsend is a rough cut Oregon contractor who feels more comfortable in the mountains on a horse than around the people in town. As a teenager his young wife left him with an infant son to make it big in Hollywood only to die of an alcohol overdose. The experience left him bitter and cynical enjoying little pleasure in life. When Marie contracts Wil to build a home for her in Oregon the two become unlikely lovers opening up a new world of sexual bliss and happiness. But will her new career as an x-rated author be the end of their perfect relationship? Totally Devoted is a gripping, deliciously sexy tale of modern romance and rugged western adventure that exposes the struggles of life with raw human emotion, lust, devotion, danger, and most of all love.
