When Mormons Doubt: A Way to Save Relationships and Seek a Quality Life Jon Ogden

What do you do when your religious beliefs differ from your spouse, parent, child, sibling, or friend? For many Mormons, these differences can be heartbreaking. This book explores how truth, beauty, and goodness can save our relationships even when we disagree with those we love.

This book is for:

- 1) Mormons who want to better understand a family member or friend who doubts
- 2) Unorthodox or former Mormons who are looking for ways to talk about their transition with believing family members and friends
- 3) People who are experiencing a Mormon faith crisis and wondering where to turn
