Pastors get more than enough free advice how to sharpen a sermon, deliver a devotion, or lead the church through crisis. Unfortunately, most of the advice is too little, too late, and from exactly the wrong people. This book contains practical, relevant leadership advice from in-the-trenches pastors who have been there. Solid, read-in-one-sitting articles from front-line leaders that address the tough stuff of ministry.

Readers will find 31 articles each packed with leadership insights, like:
dealing with personal challenges, managing culture change, avoiding leadership meltdown,
pinpointing their unique leadership forte, handling the fallout from mistakes, and keeping current when they re already booked solid.

Brief. Practical. Insightful. And conveniently sized to fit in any bathroom!
