Five Modern Japanese Novelists Donald Keene

The New Yorker has called Donald Keene "America's preeminent scholar of Japanese literature." Now he presents a new book that serves as both a superb introduction to modern Japanese fiction and a memoir of his own lifelong love affair with Japanese literature and culture. Five Modern Japanese Novelists profiles five prominent writers whom Donald Keene knew personally: Tanizaki Jun'ichiro, Kawabata Yasunari, Mishima Yukio, Abe Ko'bo', and Shiba Ryo'taro'. Keene masterfully blends vignettes describing his personal encounters with these famous men with autobiographical observations and his trademark learned literary and cultural analysis.

Keene opens with a confession: before arriving in Japan in 1953, despite having taught Japanese for several years at Cambridge, he knew the name of only one living Japanese writer: Tanizaki. Keene's training in classical Japanese literature and fluency in the language proved marvelous preparation, though, for the journey of literary discovery that began with that first trip to Japan, as he came into contact, sometimes quite fortuitously, with the genius of a generation. It is a journey that will fascinate experts and newcomers alike

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart and soul or real their interest. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Five Modern Japanese Novelists can make you truly feel more interested to read.
