International Law Reports (Volume 105)

International Law Reports (Volume 105)

Decisions of international courts and arbitrators, as well as judgments of national courts, are fundamental elements of modern public international law. The International Law Reports is the only publication in the world wholly devoted to the regular and systematic reporting in English of such decisions. It is an absolutely essential work of reference. The series, established sixty years ago (originally under the title of Annual Digest and Reports of Public International Law Cases), covers the years from 1919. The cases are drawn from every relevant jurisdiction, international and national. The series is, therefore, the most convenient source of case law material in the field. The volumes are prepared by an experienced team under the auspices of the Research Centre for International Law in the University of Cambridge. All ILR volumes will be discounted at 5% for all trade accounts.
