Consider The Lilies: A Tale Of Transformation Jerry Mooney

Consider The Lilies is a tale of a young man who emerges from cynicism to discover his spirituality. He is helped by the mentoring of his new found love and some unforeseeable circumstances that make his life more interesting. The plot dovetails with current politics and the news machinery until a surprising conclusion. The book is an entertaining mixture of religion, politics, lampoon, love and personal transformation, which manages to tackle deep ideas in a playful and humorous manner. The novel contains a colorful array of language, action, ideas and spiritual transformation.
