Selections from the Lewis Carroll Collection of Victoria J. Sewell

The year 2015 marks the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the first publication of "Alice's Adventures in Wonderland". As part of the the sesquicentennial commemorations, a number of American exhibitions will be held under the auspices of the Lewis Carroll Society of North America, designated Alice150. One participating museum is the Huntington Museum of Art in West Virginia, which will host "Selections from the Lewis Carroll Collection of Victoria J. Sewell" in their main gallery during the summer. This full-colour volume catalogues the more than 180 items on display, fully annotated by Byron W. Sewell and with an insightful Foreword by prominent English Carrollian, Edward Wakeling.

Donald Spada:

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library in order to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's heart and soul or real their interest. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Selections from the Lewis Carroll Collection of Victoria J. Sewell can make you feel more interested to read.
