Unspoken Rules: Sexual Orientation and Women's Human Rights (Sexual politics) Rachel Rosenbloom
Women's rights have recently been brought to world attention at the UN 4th International Conference on Women, held in Beijing. This text provides a comprehensive reference to human rights abuses perpetrated against women in 31 different countries. The book places lesbian human rights within the broader framework of women's human rights, arguing for a women's movement which contains the most inclusive vision of human rights.
