Paused Katherine Over

When you establish a pathway to a dream, it's easy to overlook the steps needed to get there – especially the ones requiring sacrifice. As a dancer, Joanna Cooper recognizes the importance of each step, and so far, she has made the right moves. Her dream of attending a prestigious dance program after high school is well within her reach, but can she push through her senior year without falling to the distractions of school, friends and potential love? What if she questions the drive behind her passion? Who will she find at the wheel?
