The Development of Ukrainian Literature in Czechoslovakia 1945-1975 (Europäische Hochschulschriften / European University Studies / Publications Universitaires Européennes) Josef Sirka

This is the only comprehensive survey of the literature of the Ukrainian ethnic minority in Eastern Slovakia. It covers all of the more important writers and many of the lesser known ones, regardless of their present day political status. A historical background and economic survey as they pertain to the development of this literature is included. A forty page bibliography provides the reader with an introduction to further research in the areas of literature and literary criticism as well as history, politics, economics, education and culture.
