I remember how, from my time as a little girl until my years as a young lady, my Father would consistently speak words of love and encouragement that still impact my life. I only wish I had a letter or page written from him to me so that I can reflect on his words. My Father died unexpectedly and I was left with some of his jewelry and heirlooms that I would like to pass down. But I also want my loved ones and their children to know my thoughts, blessings, and words of encouragement so that my words may aid in empowering them to pursue and fulfill their God-given purpose in life. -Lana Quintero The act of blessing a loved one has been passed down throughout the ages. In fact, the first blessing written in the Bible goes back to the book of Genesis and it has been a tradition in many cultures to bless loved ones and friends with a special gift bestowed with a blessing. The Jewelry Blessing Book will carry through generations the history of the jewelry piece along with the blessing you bestow as it is handed down from one person to another. Given with a piece of jewelry, your blessing will be cherished for years to come!
