Excerpt from Christian Science: As a Religious Belief and a Therapeutic Agent

It is only fair to Christian Science and the author to say at the outset that I am not a member of the Christian Science fellowship; but I am a lover of fair play and of all things that make for a nobler and purer life and the true happiness of the people.

Several years ago, I entertained much of the popular prejudice that is usually manifested toward new theories, discoveries and truths which run counter to the popular and generally accepted concepts of society. But I have always made it a rule of my life to try and understand a subject before attempting to criticise or to influence others either for or against it. I, therefore, made a personal study of the subject in order to be able to discuss it intelligently.
