Creative Perspective for Artists and Designers (Draw Books) Keith R. West

Written for amateur artists and students, this is a guide to the creative use of perspectives in all kinds of drawing, painting and design. It explains the basic concepts of perspective, surveys the historical context and shows how to draw common forms in perspective from different viewpoints, using step-by-step exercises. Towards the end of the book, complex illustrations are created and analyzed to prove that the perspective involved is not difficult. The book also includes a section on anatomy.
