Golf, Poker and Whiskey: The Guys' Guide to Ohio Golf Getaways John H. Tidyman

There is nothing new about golf getaways. They are big business and big fun. With the economy still shaky and Congress still trying to understand derivatives, getaways to the Carolinas, Florida, and the Upper Peninsula, will for many, be out of reach.

That s the bad news.

The good news is the incredible wealth of getaways in Ohio. Whether a luxurious resort or a cabin in the woods, we have them in abundance. Want to play a course created by a particular designer? Who? We have Mike Hurdzan and Dana Fry, Donald Ross, Arthur Hills, Tom Fazio, Brian Huntley, Barry Serafin, Tom Weiskopf and many others. New course, old course, championship course, renovated course, historic course? All here.

Where would you like to stay? A boutique hotel? A resort on the edge of Lake Erie? A cabin in the woods? A first class hotel? A bed and breakfast so sweet you want to stay? Got it, got it, got it, got it, and got it.

This book doesn t cover the waterfront. The subject is big enough for a sackful of books. But this book should be encouragement enough for you to call and schedule an Ohio getaway with the guys on your next day off.
